American Business Solutions, Inc. (ABSI) is an international business and information technology consulting firm. ABSI's suite of eBusiness strategy, Next-Generation Enterprise management and technology services make business reinvention possible in Internet time for all types of organizations.

ABSI transforms business organizations into Next-Generation Enterprises. We do this by combining technological innovation, eBusiness strategies, and management services with the market-leading systems of our strategic partners to create high-value business solutions. We bring deep vertical market expertise to help clients in telecommunications, finance, insurance, healthcare, federal, state and local government, and utilities to address the unique challenges they face.

The results are more than solutions that increase revenues, enhance market share and improve efficiency. They are also solutions that help clients redefine their organization and their relationships with customers, suppliers, and even competitors to realize new business opportunities and succeed in the digital economy.
